LEWIS A. KAPLAN, District Judge.

Plaintiff has applied by letter for leave to file a motion to preclude the testimony of defendants' purported expert, Terence Coghlin.

Plaintiff is at liberty to object to the testimony at trial. As this is a non-jury case, little purpose would be served by motion practice. In consequence, while the Court will not preclude the filing of a motion, it probably would not rule on the motion unless and until the trial is concluded and it determined that the admissibility of the evidence would be material.

SO ORDERED.
